

A week to discover the best of Provence, INCLUDING a glance of cooking classes and wine tastings !

A maximum of six guests at a time will be accommodated in our family home in village near Avignon with a view on hill and vineyard. You will discover the region in a private transportation, with an English speaking guide, you will see all the major attraction of Provence without the hassle to drive in those tiny streets, find a parking spot or waste your time in finding your way.

Lunches and dinners mentioned at restaurants with quality and/or Michelin star references.

Few hours of free time during the day for personal interest/shopping on Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday.

A wine tour in famous vineyards such as Chateauneuf-du-pape, Gigondas, Beaufort de Venise...with wine tastings, visits of cellar and wine fields. You will acquire a global vision of the world of French wine with Mike.

Our hands on cooking classes are not just recipes and techniques, this adventure introduces you to the best of Provencal way of life - a life based around friendship, in a family house you will feel just like home, where the kitchen is the beaten heart of the lodging, preparing wonderful food from the freshest local ingredients, pairing them with good wines and for sure you will be having a lot of fun with Christine. After this week you will have a lot of memories to last a lifetime.
